ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF APPLICATIONS FOR COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES REQUESTED BY HINTON, SUSSMAN, BAILEY & DAVIDSON, L.L.P. AND MANATT, PHELPS & PHILIPS, LLP AND DIRECTING ENRON TO PAY SUCH FEES AND EXPENSES

Upon consideration of the Final Applications for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses, as supplemented or amended, as the case may be (the “Final Applications”) for professional services rendered and expenses incurred by certain professionals listed on Schedule A(1) attached hereto (each an “Applicant,” and collectively, the “Applicants”); and the Fee Committee appointed by the Court, together with its retained professionals, having (1) reviewed the Final Applications and the respective supporting documentation, (2) met or discussed with the respective Applicants the amounts requested and appropriateness of certain of the fees and expenses requested, and (3) issued final reports with respect to the Final Applications and the amounts requested therein (each a “Final Report” and collectively, the “Final Reports”); and the amounts requested in certain of the Final Applications having been reduced on a final basis on account of issues or positions set forth in the Final Reports and agreed upon by the respective Applicants; and due notice of the Applications having been provided pursuant to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure; and the Court finding that (a) the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157 and Section 38.1(i) of the Supplemental Modified Fifth Amended Joint Plan of Affiliated Debtors Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, dated July 2, 2004, (b) this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), (c) notice of the hearing to consider the Final Applications was adequate under the circumstances and no other or further notice need be given, (d) no objections having been filed by the United States Trustee with respect to the Final Applications, (e) the Court having held a hearing with respect to the Final Applications on August 10, 2006 (the “Final Fee Hearing”) and having heard the statements of counsel at the Final Fee Hearing, and (f) this Court having found and determined that each of the Applicants should be awarded final approval of the compensation and reimbursement of expenses in the amounts set forth on Schedule A hereto; it is hereby ORDERED that, pursuant to section 330 of title 11 of the United States Code, final approval of the Final Applications is GRANTED to the extent set forth on Schedule A and each of the Applicants is allowed compensation and reimbursement of expenses in the amounts set forth on the attached Schedule A (each, an “Allowed Amount”); and it is further ORDERED that Enron Corp. is hereby authorized and directed to disburse to each Applicant the respective Allowed Amount, less any amounts previously paid to or deposited with each Applicant on account of such Allowed Amount.

Dated: New York, New York
