HISTORY OF THE CASE

9. On January 19, 2001, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 1102, the United States Trustee (the "US Trustee") appointed the Noteholders' Committee. The Noteholders' Committee consists of certain holders of and the indenture trustees to the 8 2% senior notes due 2007 and the 11 3/4% senior notes due 2009. Both tranches of senior notes were issued by LTV and were guaranteed by certain other Debtors, including VP Buildings, the Copperweld Companies and LTV Steel.

- 10 On March 8, 2001, the Noteholders filed it Application of the Official Committee of Noteholders for an Order Authorizing the Nunc Pro Tunc Retention of CIBC World Markets Corp ("CIBC") as financial advisors
- 11. Pursuant to the Initial CIBC order, CIBC provided extensive financial advisory services from January 29, 2001 through January 15, 2002. The Noteholders, however, have not utilized CIBC since on or about January 15, 2002, and both the Noteholders Committee and the Unsecured Creditors Committee have coordinated with each other to reduce duplication of effort where appropriate
- 12. By an order entered on December 7, 2001, the Court authorized the Debtors to implement an asset protection plan (the "APP") to effect the orderly cessation of operations for, and the sale of assets of, the Debtors' integrated steel business segment (the "Integrated Steel Business"). Pursuant to the APP, LTV Steel has sold substantially all of its Integrated Steel Business assets and its tubular products division.
- 13. In August 2002, it became apparent that the Debtors would either sell the Copperweld Companies or formulate a stand-alone plan of reorganization for Copperweld Companies
- 14. On November 27, 2002, the Noteholders Committee filed its Motion of the Official Committee filed its Motion of the Official Committee of Noteholders for an Order Approving Amended Fee Structure for CIBC as Financial Advisors. On December 17, 2002, General Electric Capital Corporation ("GECC"), the agent to the Copperweld Company's post petition lenders, and the U.S. Trustee objected to the flat-fee arrangement proposed in the Amended Fee Structure Motion.
- 15. On January 31, 2003, the Noteholders' Committee filed its Notice of Withdrawal of Motion of the Official Committee of Noteholders for an Order Approving Amended Fee Structure for CIBC as Financial Advisors.
- 16. On January 31, 2003, the Noteholders' Committee selected KPMG as its accountants and financial advisors in these Cases
- 17. On December 17, 2003, this Court entered an order confirming the Debtors' First Amended Joint Plan of Liquidation of VP Buildings, Inc. and certain of its Affiliated Debtors, as amended (the "Plan"). The Plan became effective on March 8, 2004 (the "Effective Date").
