Garlo Ward, P.C. would show the Court that all of the above fee applications have been previously approved by the court and paid by the debtor. Garlo Ward, P.C. further asserts that all fees and expenses were reasonable and necessary for administrative and regulatory work done on behalf of the debtor. Garlo Ward, P.C. would refer the Court back to its Fee Applications filed previously as the details of the work required by the Court are detailed there. Since the filing period of the Seventh Fee Application, Garlo Ward, P.C. has not billed the debtor for attorneys fees and expenses in excess of $50,000.00 and therefore has filed no other fee applications.

Therefore, Garlo Ward, P.C. asks for final approval for the fees outlined above and for such other relief to which it might be entitled.

WHEREFORE, Garlo Ward requests that allowance be made to it in the sum of $ 472,750.55, as compensation for actual and necessary professional services rendered to the Debtors during period February 1, 2000 through May 31, 2001 and the sum of $9,966.03 for reimbursement of actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred during that period all amounts having previously been approved and paid, and grant such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
